Our ambience: regal & sophisticated

The location of the Schlössl is linked with a small piece of Tyrol's history. Duke Friedrich IV, a regent of the state, is said to have taken a rest here in 1400 where the Schlössl stands today.

He apparently sat in the sun and sighed:
"If only I had a castle!"

Our rooms should serve as your own personal retreat. In which ambience do you feel most comfortable? Select from our classic rooms, our romantic rooms and our suites with magnificent views 'up on high'.

If Duke Friedrich IV were to take a rest here today... he would certainly want to stay!

Up on high: the gardens & terraces

Are you familiar with the concept of taking a stroll? During the past centuries, people took a stroll around the baroque gardens and soaked up its special flair. It's hard to believe that they can also do this in our Schlössl gardens at 1,000m above sea level!

An 18m long 'Schloss bridge' leads into our gardens with their vegetables, herbs and berries. The hotel's own castle chapel is also the perfect place to stop for a rest. Savour the tranquillity, inhale the fresh air or sun-bathe – our gardens await!

A scenic view of a hillside with a sunburst effect, a garden, and a small yellow building. The sun is high in the sky, creating a bright lens flare. The hillside is covered in green grass and trees.
